The Enfield Echo

*Published at intervals during the school year by the members of

THOMPSONVILLE, CONN., JUNE, 1941

NO. 1

ADDRESS OF WELCOME

(By Blair White, President)

Parents, Teachers and Friends:

As President of the Class of 1941, it is my privilege to welcome you here tonight and to extend to you sincere thanks on behalf of our class for your help in making this, our Class Night program, a huge success.

It has been nearly four years since this group was organized as an integral part of Enfield High School. Except for occasional moments of stress these have been very pleasant and very profitable years.

Four years ago we were uncertain, timid, self-conscious students, stumbling awkwardly over one another in the corridors. Our fund of knowledge was pathetically meager, and any talents that we might have had were as yet undiscovered.

The past four years have wrought an almost miraculous change. We have become self-confident instead of self-conscious. Where once we stumbled we now walk with poise and grace. Our minds have been enriched with a vast store of Latin verbs and French pronouns, and mathematical formulae. Some have developed brawn and skill on the athletic field, others have become masters of oratory and the drama.

We are, of course, sincerely grateful to Enfield High School for all she has bestowed upon us. Perhaps "forced upon us" might seem a more literal wording to some, but nevertheless I am sure there is not one of us that does not deeply appreciate the changes wrought in us during our four years together.

It is now time for us to turn our eyes to the future with the sincere hope that the members of the Class of 1941 will continue their steady growth in wisdom and understanding and that the years to come will hold a full quota of success and happiness for all.

CLASS HISTORY

(By Norma Allen)

Tonight, you the audience, will be the first to hear read the preview of the book "FOUR IMPORTANT YEARS" which is the story of the high school life of 1941. The setting is Enfield High School and the characters are the Class of '41.

CHAPTER I

Time—1937-1938

On a bright September afternoon, the Class of 1941 enters Enfield High School as proud, but somewhat bewildered freshmen. As the year progresses, they are not the meek youngsters of September, but are the outstanding freshman class in the history of the school. They are especially noted for their fine support of the various school activities. The outstanding event of the year is the election of class officers, who are: President, Blair White; Vice-President, Phyllis Crombie; Secretary, Jane Novak; and Raymond Malley, Treasurer. The president, Mr. White, brings further honor to himself and the class as being the only freshman to appear in the cast of "Charm School", the play of the year.

The greatest thrill of the year is the Freshman Radio Play entitled "The Tiger or the Lady", under the capable direction of Miss Collins. Members of the cast are: Worth Bostick, Phyllis Crombie, Geno Santandrea, George Merrill, Blair White, Alphonse Misuraca, Philip Scavotto, and Eleanor Bak.

CHAPTER II

Time—1938-1939

The Class of '41 brought honor to the upperclassmen by becoming Sophomores. They have shown their ability to lead and will surely be looked upon with envy by their fellow schoolmates.

The new officers promise capable guidance for the ensuing year. Blair White has again been elected President, Vice-President, Eleanor Bak; Jane Novak, Secretary and Ray Malley, Treasurer.

The most popular activity of the year is the Hi-Y Minstrel, directed by Mr. Langford. The Class of '41, besides the many members of the chorus, is represented by Eleanor Bak, soloist, and Phyllis Crombie, Geno Santandrea, and Norma Allen, ends.

CHAPTER III

Time—1939-1940

In September, 1939, the highly respected Class of '41 enters the ranks of the intellegensia and becomes serious-minded Juniors. A year of hard work is enjoyed by all.

Again the main event is Class elections. Blair White is the selection for Class President; Marguerite Egan, Vice-President; Jane Novak, Secretary; and Philip Scavotto, Treasurer.

The Hi-Y Minstrel, "American Review" is, as usual, a great success. The Class of '41 is represented by Phyllis Crombie, Irma McKittrick, Geno Santandrea, and Norma Allen as endmen; and Eleanor Bak and Philip Scavotto, soloists.

The Junior Prom is a gala affair, having as its theme, "A Little Dutch Garden." It is a great success, both financially and socially. Host Blair White and Hostess Jane Novak do fine work in the receiving line.

On April 15, a one-act play, "The Minuet," is presented, with Phyllis Crombie representing the class as a member of the cast. The presentation is again directed by Miss Collins.

The School play "Sweet Sixteen" is delightfully presented and received with much enthusiasm by all who attend. Important members of the cast are Constance Angelica, Barbara Magill, and Worth Bostick. Miss Helen Javorski of the faculty directed.

CHAPTER IV

Time—1940-1941

The years have certainly flown by, and the Class of '41 find themselves enrolled as dignified Seniors. It certainly makes us feel privileged to occupy the middle section at assemblies and we are even allowed to leave the auditorium first!

To lead us in this important Senior year, the Class of '41 has again chosen Blair White to serve his fourth term as president; Marguerite Egan, Vice-President; Eleanor Bak, Secretary, and Carmello Brutto, Treasurer.

The year starts off with a bang! The first public presentation is the Hi-Y Minstrel, under Mr. Langford's fine direction. Highlights of the show are Blair White, President of the Hi-Y Club, as interlocutor, Eleanor Bak and Philip Scavotto, soloists, and Phyllis Crombie, Irma McKittrick and Norma Allen as endmen.

The Annual Senior Prom is very well attended and successful. Eleanor Bak and Geno Santandrea did wonderful work as hostess and host.

After Christmas vacation, the cast for the school play "The Hidden Enemy" is chosen by the director, Miss Javorski. Members of the cast are Rose Gallo, Worth Bostick, Dorothy Kearns, Pauline Lamont, Cyril Gordon, Jane Novak and Norma Allen. Success again!

The Seniors sponsor a Senior-Freshman night with the freshman class as their guests. The purpose is to make the poor little freshmen feel as if they were really part of the school and not dust under our feet. Refreshments were served and both the Senior and Freshman classes presented skits. This is the first social of this kind ever attempted and because of its success we sincerely hope that the tradition will be carried on. The affair was under the direction of Miss Crombie.

On May 5, a group of 60 Seniors and adults left Thompsonville for the 7th Annual Pilgrimage to Washington. Carlo Angelica and Miss Jenny Brakel served as very fine chaperons. Mr. and Mrs. Lee, and son Rodney, again accompanied the students. I can speak for my classmates in saying a very wonderful time was had by all.

Frederick Haight brought honor to our class by winning first prize in an art contest sponsored by the Valley Wheel Association. Fred's drawing will be the design for the future athletic plaques presented to championship teams in the Valley Wheel.

Miss Crombie and the Static Staff should receive many thanks for their fine work on the school paper. Barbara Magill, Editor-in-chief, and her assistants, Phyllis Crombie, Betty Wishart, Jane Novak, Raymond Malley, and Margaret King, have a lot to be proud of.

Among the outstanding athletes are the names of "Lefty" King, Malley, Oleckny, Siana, Lauria, and MacGovern. Most of these boys starred in sports all through their high school careers.

To close this book of happiness, I quote from Sara Teasdale, who said:

*"Into my heart's treasury,
I slipped a coin
That time cannot take
Nor a thief purloin,—
Better than the minting
Of a gold-crowned king,
Is the safe kept memory
Of a lovely thing."*

CLASS PROPHECY

(By Constance Angelica, Elaine Carmel, Robert Triggs)

With the previous speakers we have been hearing facts, and though it was pleasant, it is much more fun to drift to dream-land. So let's glide away to a land of promise, the land of the future, and discover what the class of '41 has done to make this old world appreciate us. Let us drift into the greatly expanded, up-to-date city of Enfield in the year 1951. This is the same Enfield that we know now, as far as customs of generosity and happiness go, but the physical aspect has been greatly changed. This has not been achieved entirely through the constant efforts of the graduates of 1941, though we would like to have you believe that.

As we saunter down Main Street, the first building that catches our eye is the Thompsonville Savings Company. The name of Thompsonville's first woman president, Miss Dorothy Gourlie, is modernistically printed on the window. Inside we discover her able assistants, Adella Berozky and Genevieve Pietrusza. George Merrill, teller, finds his job an easy and interesting task, working with Miss Noreen Miltner. He doesn't mind Miss "Cash" either. Fanny Korona and Rita Crabtree, teachers at Enfield High are depositing their hard-earned money, while Evelyn Duggan at her keyed machine tries not to be so noisy.

At the "Floweret" operated by Miss Elizabeth Wishart, we find Betty fixing her window display of pink roses, her week-end specialty. Helen Manning, our lady lawyer, who defended Mike McGuirk last week, comes in and orders a dozen of pink roses. They are to be sent to Mike at the Prison Farm, now run by Mary Parvelac. Up the street a way we see the exclusive shoppe of the well-known dress designer, Miss Barbara Magill. Working for her are Stella Klebosky and Lydia Polec. Miss Marion Charette, best dressed woman about town, is Miss Magill's best customer. What would Marion do without Barbara?

Rushing toward us in quite a dilemma, we find Betty Snow, her dress literally covered with mud; excitedly she asks to be directed to "A. W. Bostick Cleaning and Dyeing Enterprise."

Entering a tiny little dainty shoppe, the "Lamont Shoppe," which specializes in clothing for short women, we find Lena Rossi, champion roller skater of New England. She is conferring with Miss Lamont about purchasing a purple and green striped outfit. Behind the hosiery counter we find Frank Slapski, helping Anna Dubois select a pair of size 12 stockings for Florence Lynch, private secretary to Roscoe Goodwin, inventor of a wheel-less bicycle. Miss Dorothy Hayden is also there purchasing a "Whirl Wind" hat for employer Eileen Slade, now taking care of the teeth of Enfield's citizens.

GLIMPSES of
WASHINGTON
TRIP
May 1941

Along side Miss Lamont's Shoppe is the S. S. S. Shoppe, the "Smart Set Sews Shoppe," established by Miss Anne Eagleson. In goes Jackie Thompson to take her forty-ninth lesson. Is darn-ing a stocking still a day's work, Jackie?

Elena DeCaro has the smartest Beauty Parlor on Main Street. Her broomstick coiffure, which takes three days to dry, is quite the rage. Catherine Santanella who is working for Elena tells us about Chester Luczai's prize cow, which tips the scales at 202. Catherine tells us that if we want to see it we ought to go to the County Fair. So off we start in our rickey old 1941 Buick (amazing how long these cars last, isn't it?) Our journey takes us out through Elm Street which has been re-named Wonder Avenue. To our surprise and bewilderment we find those once vacant, deserted, golden fields of Elm Street have now been turned into a gigantic airport. Its owner and operator is Miss Constance Angelica, well-known business woman. Those beautiful hangars that stretch across the land were designed by Stella Petroski and Co. A plane has just landed and a group of nurses tumble out of the beautiful ship. This is the first year that the Thompsonville nurses are having a convention. Among the familiar faces, we see Kathleen McConn, Eileen Hanrahan, and Eleanor Bak.

Josephine Yuskis, our famous majorette, descends with her private secretary, Miss Jean LaGrange. Up at the pilot's control we see Harold Reed, ace pilot. Speaking of pilots, did you know that Rose Reveruzzi is test pilot in an elevator at the Stella Swist Department Stores?

We must hurry to get to the fair before dark, so we leave these people going merrily along. Quite a few are taking the subway to Springfield to see the newest show, "Enfield on the March." Among them is Josephine Romano, scientist for Enfield, who is experimenting with tobacco worms.

After a few minutes of riding, the fair grounds come into view. The grounds are divided into two parts, the domestic and the animal shows. In the domestic part we see Anna Wietecha, displaying her home-made jellies and jams. Louise Breen is displaying her latest frock creation, a shoulderless raincoat. Mary Shlatz and Nina Buscemi are competing for the blue ribbon given for the best apple pie. On the grandstand at the farther end of the field we find Geraldine Martin and Helen Pierog as gracious judges for the day.

In the animal section we see the fore-mentioned prize cow, owned by Chester Luczai. William Comstock has been awarded a medal for the fastest-racing pigeon. David Beckman now holds a blue ribbon for creating a skinless, eyeless, potatoless, potato.

Who do we see at the hot dog stand? The one and only Andy Siana. He pompously informs us that he is now working on a newspaper staff. The paper is owned, operated and edited by Irma McKittrick. The assistant editor is former police commissioner,

Joseph Vesce. His secretaries are Sophie Agrapides, Lois Pierce, and Irene Feeney. The staff of reporters consist of Anna Kamaros, Mary Melfa, and the photographer is Mary Polek who always "clicks" at the right moment. We inquisitively ask who the copy boy is. Meekly Andy answers, "I am."

Next to the fair grounds is the Thompsonville Country Club. Jenny Bonk is playing a stiff game of tennis with Elizabeth Ryan, tennis champion of Four Counties. Oh, my, Betty just missed. Be careful, Betty!

By the way, Bernard Bordua conducts his internationally known Golf School at the club. His special pupils are Stella Klezinevski, Dorothy Frigon, and Harold Hardiman. That handsome Johnny Weismueller that we see diving into the pool, we find, is Frank Russotto, swimming instructor.

Dusk is upon us and so we must leave the Country Club and the fair grounds. On our way home we see Edward Mokrycki literally flying by in a new "Silent Breeze" automobile. Further down the road we see a crowd of people huddled together. Two cars are involved in an accident. Oh, my, in one of the cars is that famed explorer, Miss Irene McNulty and companion, Margaret Renals. Miss McNulty is still searching for a Paradise on Earth. Our friend, Mr. Mokrycki, was in the other car. State Policeman George MacCracken gets everything under control and orders that the motorists be taken to the Enfield Hospital for examination. We take part in all this excitement and proceed to the hospital.

As we enter the hospital we see that the corridor is crowded with pretty nurses all busily, yet silently rushing about. Josephine DeMaso and Agnes Nigro assist Elaine Carmel with fresh white linen for the day. Later we learn that the patient who has caused such a great discussion among the nurses is Sam Lauria, football hero. Jane Novak, hospital dietitian, enters his room with spinach and carrots specially prepared for him. While there, we see Miss Virginia Blaney, Debutante No. 1 strolling in. She seems very much disturbed over Sam's condition.

On the top floor of the building we see Barbara McCullough, important insurance woman, waiting to see Dr. Philip Scavotto. Miss McCullough is a steady patient of Dr. Scavotto.

On our way out we stop to ask the desk clerk, pretty Helen Jamrogowicz the condition of our friends. "Simply wonderful," she replies. "Only a bruise here and there."

The cold, brisk air greets us as we leave the hospital, but it is quickly followed by the scent of smoke. There's a fire in the block across the street. We see a mass of people quickly gathering. Out of the tiny windows of Edith Cote's Tea Shoppe, dark, black smoke pours. Anna Arabek, Edith's helper, quickly gathers what she can (cash register especially) and runs for dear life. But these two young ladies are not the only ones disturbed by the fire. In the "Wonderland Theatre," manager, Norman Gagne, tries to get his crowded theatre quiet, while usherettes Marian Leete, Helen Swols, and Margaret Egan try desperately to soothe the raging audience. Donald MacGovern, comedian, and professional Scitico College Cheer Leader, Dorothy Kearns, go on with their act.

In the next building watching terrified are librarians Helen Butler and Sophie Typrowicz, who fear that their art exhibit may be destroyed. Among their prize possessions are paintings submitted by Margaret King and Fred Haight. Mayor Angelo Torre is to judge the paintings next Monday. The librarians' fears are lessened as they hear the clanking of the fire engine approaching and the splashing of water on the flames. Raymond Malley, fire chief, climbs down from the engine, (say, reach it, you almost missed a step). Ray shouts to Edward Golon and John Wilby to hurry. As the efficient firemen get the blaze under control, we continue on our way.

The next place of interest on our trip is the "Tobacco Grove," night spot owned by Robert Triggs. We enter and find that we are just in time for the floor show. As we check our wraps, we hear the mellow voice of announcer, William Gallant, introducing Phyllis Crombie, vocalist with Cyril Gordon's clubsters. Mr. Gordon's band has just completed a nation-wide tour, featuring Geno Santandrea, sensational pianist, who plays on all black keys. Other members of the band are Curt Most, hot-trumpet, Bertha and Wanda Ludwin taking care of the string section.

Waitress Eleanor Karcz takes our order as Miss Crombie finishes her song. Comedian Fofu Misuraca keeps the house in stitches for a time, while cigarette girls Dorothy Devaney, Margaret Bernier and Gladys Leonowicz glide from table to table making sales.

As we glance around the club we see Alice Lakstutis, Nobel Prize Winner for her latest novel, "For Whom the Horn Blows" or "Four O'Clock in Thompsonville." With her is Norma Allen, masseuse in her own women's gymnasium, and Warren Bomely, Senator from Connecticut.

At the next table Geneva Starr, woman architect, is consulting Blair White, manager of Thompsonville's Coast to Coast Super-Market, about the new store that she is building for him. Also at that table is Edna Arrowsmith, interior decorator, with Lefty King, Star pitcher of T'ville Yankees. Carmelo Brutto, manufacturer of left-handed baseballs for Lefty, is also there. Mr. Brutto's efficient secretaries are Ida Orfice and Frances Legienza.

At a table in a little corner we find Rose Gallo, journalist, with Joseph Zirolli, district attorney. They are discussing Miss Gallo's new success, "Now I've Seen Everything—Bang."

As we leave the club with the year 1941 as our destination, we hear the tinkle of milk bottles and see Bolek Olechmey delivering his Grade A milk to Enfield's housewives.

Now that we have given you as complete a record of our class as possible we shall return to 1941 and—reality.

CLASS PRESENTATIONS

(By Virginia Blaney, Stella Swist and William Gallant)

- Marian Leete.....Gum
Merry, pretty and always gay,
What more is there to say?
Cracking gum is her delight
Be it morning, noon or night.
- Norma Allen.....Tambourine
As an endman she's a hit
In every minstrel show;
Depend on her to do her bit
In school, at work or home.
- Irma McKittrick.....Dancing Shoes
Irma is a pretty girl
Laughing, sweet, and clever.
She sings and dances very well
And is a friend forever.
- Irene Feeney.....Nurse's Cap
Good luck to Irene,
Much may she gain,
When she goes in training,
May she rise to fame.
- Kenneth King.....Loving Cup
A popular boy is he
In sports he does excel,
A finer lad there'll never be
This loving cup will tell.
- Louise Breen.....Horn
Louise with the quiet voice
Never makes a sound,
Here's a little horn for noise
So we can tell when you're around.
- Helen Jamrogowicz.....Man
The way you always get the men
Is something we don't know;
We give to you this little man
So you can keep him in tow.
- Dorothy Devaney.....Manicure Set
You have such long and well-kept nails,
Mere words cannot suffice;
Here's a set for your convenience,
So you can keep them always nice.
- Eleanor DeCaro, Agnes Nigro and Josephine DeMaso.....Friendship Chain
Elena, Agnes and Joe sure do stick;
To part them you need much more than a stick,
This friendship chain we bestow
upon you;
Remember it when you feel down
or blue.
- Edward Golon.....Roadster
When this little roadster
Comes driving down the street,
Girls' hearts will pitter patter,
And say—Eddie Golon, what a treat!
- Dorothy Hayden.....Doll
Dolly with the long black hair
Is a friend, real and true.
We give to you this doll so fair
Because it reminds us of you.
- Edith Cote.....Compact
Edith is always so spic and span,
No wonder she has a favorite man;
This little compact we give to you
It is also small but very new.
- Eleanor Karcz.....Apron
At the Mid-nite Spa she works each
night
To see her there makes everything
bright,
This little apron we give to you
For pretty waitresses are but few.
- Kathleen McConn.....Book of Fashions
She always has the latest in clothes
Therefore, many places she goes,
Take this most recent fashion book
So you may always pretty look.
- Stella Kleszczewski.....Sewing Kit
Stella Kleszczewski just loves to sew,
This way she saves plenty of dough,
We give her this little sewing kit
To make all her clothes a perfect fit.
- Mary Shlatz.....Joke Book
Mary is always so much fun
Tho all her work may not be done,
This joke book we're sure you will enjoy,
You'll find its more fun than any toy.
- Dorothy Gourlie.....Typewriter
In shorthand and typing she is very clever,
And many friends she'll have forever,
With hard work she has reached
high rank,
For now she is working at the Thompsonville Bank.

Margaret Renals.....Good Luck Charm

Margaret has the sweetest face
All your cares she can erase;
We give her this little good luck
charm
For she never believed in doing harm.

Marion CharetteModel

Marion comes from Enfield Street,
Is that why she's always so neat?
Some day a pretty model she'll make,
And many pictures of her they'll take.

Lois Pierce.....Can of Dynamite

Your steps are always soft and light,
You talk so sweet and low,
We're giving you some dynamite
Perhaps 'twill make you go.

Phyllis Crombie.....Dancing Slippers

Phyllis goes to dances,
Oh boy! how she prances,
To chase away the blues
She'll probably use these shoes.

Betty Snow.....Comb

With her dark brown, curly hair,
She is sweet and oh, so fair,
About permanents she doesn't
worry,
Maybe that's what keeps her so merry.

Helen PierogLipstick

Helen Pierog is always just so,
It's no wonder she has many a
beau;
This lipstick will keep her lips full
of color
For we should not like to see them
duller.

William Gallant.....Silencer

Who's making all the noise?
It must be one of the boys;
Sure enough its Billy
To over-look him would be silly.

Evelyn DugganBike

Evelyn traveled far to school,
And often made it on her bike;
So take this one just for reserve
Then you'll never have to hike.

Margaret Bernier

Presidential Certificate of Home Ec.
A sweet girl, dark and quiet
Who supervises the Home Ec. diet,
A better president cannot be found
As long as Margaret is around.

Mary Parvelac.....Dancing Book

To the Hep-cats she does belong,
And very seldom does anything
wrong,
She enjoys dancing for it's such fun
Especially where jitterbugging is done.

Elaine Carmel.....Toothpaste

Elaine has teeth as white as snow,
How she does it, we'd all like to
know;
Here's some toothpaste to keep them bright,
We hope to see them always as white.

Anna Kamaros...Card of Best Wishes

This cheerful, scholarly girl
A secretary she will be,
Here's a card of best wishes
That much success she shall see.

Helen ManningNoisemaker

Step softly in the classroom
As you have always done;
Since you have worked so very hard
Now you must have some fun.

Margaret King.....Mirror

A mirror to you, my pretty lass,
To reflect your image in this glass;
Your whole appearance we admire,
To look at you is our desire.

Robert TriggsCrank

We hear you're good at driving a
car,
And are always wandering near and far.
Just in case you ever get stuck
Here's a crank 'twill bring you good luck.

Sam Lauria.....Whoopee Doll

While girls go passing by
You seem so awfully shy,
The only remedy for your case
Is look this doll right square in the face.

Cyril Gordon.....Tin Pan

To Cyril Gordon we give a tin pan,
Now, Cyril, bang it as loud as you can.
You're always quiet, we think you
are blue,
But come now and show us just what you can do.

Barbara McCulloughMedal

With pleasant voice and jolly smile,
She's always right on hand.
She's kind and helpful all the while
No truer friend in all the land.

- Geneva Starr Soap
Neatness and cleanliness is her first desire,
And that is one great thing we all admire,
Her hair and clothes are always just right,
A fine appearance to anyone's sight.
- George Merrill Tie
Georgie is a ladies' man
As you can easily see,
He dresses up so spic and span
This tie we hope will pleasing be.
- Joseph Vesce Glue
In school he hates his work to do,
He'd rather sit and play;
This glue will keep his eyes on work
And take his fault away.
- Philip Scavotto Candle
To our advice please take some heed
For this candle you're sure to need,
To guide you in your future years,
And banish all worries and fears.
- Lydia Polec Book of Practical Jokes
With a twinkle in her eye
Lydia passes by;
There must be fun abrewing
What else could she be doing?
- Josephine Yuskis Bugle
When you march by on the street,
Your bugle true we hear;
If some misfortune it should meet,
Use this one—sweet and clear.
- Bertha Ludwin Musical Instrument
She plays her guitar better now
Than the one who taught her how;
We hope in future years, her name
Will stand high in the ranks of fame.
- Annie Wietecha Tattoo Lipstick
Annie is a bashful girl
Who doesn't like the boys;
This Tattoo lipstick is just the brand
To make the boys ask for her hand.
- Betty Ryan Tennis Racket
Betty is a pretty girl
She will make good in this world;
Tennis she does love to play
Here's a racket to use each day.
- Noreen Miltner Noisemaker
Noreen is always shy and quiet
Never makes noise or any riot,
This noisemaker should do the trick
If it doesn't we'll use a stick.
- Eileen Hanrahan Nurses' Kit
Eileen is another, always just so,
Many places she is sure to go,
At the Mercy she plans to train;
Use this kit to relieve each pain.
- Bernard Bordua Golf Sticks
Bordua was a member of the debate,
And did very well throughout the state;
On the golf team he also plays;
These sticks will help in many ways.
- Andrew Siana Wastepaper Basket
Andy has natural curly hair,
And loves to put on attractive air,
This wastepaper basket will come in handy,
When helping Frosty, it will prove a dandy.
- Eleanor Bak Music Sheet
Eleanor has a wonderful voice
In minstrels she is our first choice,
We honor her with this music sheet
For to hear her sing is sure a treat.
- Stella Klebosky Shorthand Pad
On the bus she comes each day
And shorthand seems to come her way,
Here's a pad that will prove a dandy
We guarantee it'll be quite handy.
- Ann Eagleson Home Ec. Diploma
Ann is a good member of our class,
And always ready to do her task,
Home Ec. teacher she plans to be
We shall all hope and some day see.
- Kathleen Thompson Hair Rinse
Jackie's complexion is smooth and fair
And she has beautiful bright red hair,
Here's a rinse to keep it that way
You may apply it twice a day.
- Pauline Lamont Dancing Shoes
Puggy is little and oh so wise,
She has the cutest nose and blue eyes;
These dancing shoes will show her pep
And you can try every new step.
- Josephine Romano Stencil
Josephine comes on the stateline bus
And very seldom makes any fuss,
Her favorite pastime is to type
Here's a stencil we hope you'll like.

Joseph Zirolli.....Question Book

Answering questions is his delight
And he would do it both day and
night,
We give you this question and answer book
So you can read it in any nook.

Wanda Ludwin.....Needle and Thread

Wanda is always happy and gay
In sewing she excels in every way;
Here's a needle and thread for you
For excellent sewers there are but few.

Chester Luczai.....Chicken

Chester lives out on the farm,
And very seldom does any harm;
Milking the cows and feeding the chicks
Requires skill and a few of his tricks.

Sophie Typrowicz.....Ivory Soap

Sophie is always nice and neat;
You'll find her smile is always
sweet,
Here's some Ivory soap to insure
Your daintiness, for it's oh, so pure.

Anna Arabek.....Skates

Twice a week she has a date
To Riverside she goes to skate,
Many fancy steps she can do
To all kinds of music and rhythm, too.

Fred Haight.....Paint Set

An excellent artist we all know
And your name will steadily grow,
Someday we can surely claim
That this paint set gave you fame.

Angelo Torre.....Pay Envelope

Angelo's clothes are always just so,
They must cost him plenty of
dough;
He can afford all these nice things
For the Arthur's Drug a good salary brings.

Jean LaGrange.....Wave Set

Jean has such wavy locks
That are always set and neat;
This wave set will be helpful
So you'll ever look so sweet.

Lena Rossi.....Roller Skates

Lena loves to roller skate
A champion she will be;
We hope that at an early date
Her ambition she will see.

Dorothy Frigon.....Laurel

Here's to one of the smartest lasses,
That we have in any of our classes;
She'll be a success wherever she goes,
And be a scholar the world will
know.

Helen Butler.....Tray

I'll be your favorite customer
At the Farmington Puritan Maid;
You've worked there in the summer
So I give to you this little tray.

Anna Dubois.....Car

Anna lives so very far
She's not seen much in town;
We helpfully donate this car
So she can get around.

Genevieve Pietrusza.....Key

The path of success is open wide,
Fortune and happiness on either side;
May you achieve all this and more
And use this key which fits the door.

- Bolek Olechny Diary
 When Bolek is old
 And growing gray,
 This diary will recall
 The pranks of today.
- Eileen Slade Piece of Rope
 Dolly and you are never apart
 So kindly take this rope;
 And bind her to you always
 To an eternal friendship, I hope.
- Edward Mokrycki Egg
 Eddie is a busy man
 And an active Aggie member;
 So take this egg that in future years
 Your school days you'll remember.
- Irene McNulty Friendship Chain
 We've searched and hunted all around
 In a million different places,
 A better friend cannot be found
 Among all the different faces.
- George McCracken Buick
 Tall, friendly and capable
 A very good driver, too;
 We hope you'll take us riding
 When you have nothing else to do.
- Harold Hardiman Wheaties
 Harold's never in a hurry
 He always takes a while.
 These Wheaties will make him
 scurry
 And make him run a mile.
- Curtis Most Camera
 He's always where you least expect him
 With a camera glued to his eye;
 Snapping pictures with never a thought
 Of whether it is you or I.
- John Wilby Baseball Glove
 Another baseball fan is John,
 This sport he does enjoy;
 He's often seen upon the lawn
 Playing with another boy.
- Betty Wishart Dutch Cleanser
 Betty is always so sparkling and
 bright
 And makes everyone happy at her
 sight,
 We've often wondered what makes her that way
 Maybe she uses Dutch Cleanser
 each day.
- Jane Novak Book "Success"
 A pleasant manner, a flashing
 smile;
 A neat and attractive girl is she,
 Giving her energy all the while,
 Full of success her life will be.
- Virginia Blaney Basketball
 Bobby is one of our finest athletes
 And is a fine scholar as well;
 In many sports she may compete
 But in basketball she'll excel.
- Roscoe Goodwin Horn
 Roscoe loves to tease the girls
 For them it is no fun;
 So take this horn and blow it
 To give them a chance to run.
- Geraldine Martin Working Papers
 Some working papers for Geraldine
 To insure her future success;
 And with these she ought to get a job
 Quicker than all the rest.
- Catherine Santanella Maybelline
 Katie, Katie, quite contrary
 How dark your lashes grow,
 If you will use this Maybelline
 They'll always be sure to show.
- Frank Slapski Fishing Reel
 Frank has gotten to be quite a sport
 And is a fellow of the nicest sort,
 He loves to fish a great deal
 So take this new fishing reel.
- Norman Gagne Book on
"What's Right and What's Wrong"
 Arguments are his chief delight
 Where there is one he's sure in
 sight,
 He at least shows he's wide awake
 Which is a good thing, for his sake.
- Marguerite Egan Thermometer
 Marg takes part in everything
 Happiness to all she'll bring,
 An excellent nurse she will make
 And many temperatures she will
 take.
- Jennie Bonk Book on Dress Designing
 In Home Ec. Class she is very
 bright
 And always does everything just right,
 Some day a dress designer she will be
 And for us friends charge but a small fee.

Gladys Leonowicz.....Dictionary
 Gladys always has something to say
 And never gets tired from day to day,

This dictionary will help her along
 To look up words which prove too long.

Barbara Magill.....Great Big A
 Barbara is a real smart lass
 In fact, the smartest in the class,
 The highest of honors she has received
 This "A" is a symbol of all she achieved.

Ida Orifice.....Token of Friendship
 Ida is a gracious girl,
 A golden voice has she;
 A ready smile upon her face,
 A pleasure with her to be.

Alice Lakstutis.....Book of Poetry
 Poetry Alice likes to write
 And she does it with all her might,
 This book of poetry we give you
 We're sure you'll like it through and through.

Franca Legienza.....Thimble
 Fran is a very industrious miss
 To her we give this thimble,
 So an opportunity she won't miss
 To keep her fingers nimble.

Constance Angelica.....Soap Box
 She's short and sweet and always gay
 Always there with something to say,
 Here's a soap box to help you along
 So you can be heard for miles
 around.

Florence Lynch.....Season Pass
 Florence lives near Enfield Street
 Maybe that's why she's so sweet,
 Movies are her chief delight
 Here's a pass for Horace Heidt.

Edna Arrowsmith.....Latin Book
 Edna lives down Hyland Park way
 And comes to school by bus each
 day,
 As Latin student, she does the best
 And beats all the rest in every test.

Blair White.....Leader's Badge
 As a peppy lad Blair is right there,
 Ready and willing to do his share;
 As president of Hi-Y and the senior class
 He showed signs of leadership hard to surpass.

Helen Swols.....Smiling Doll
 Whether she works or whether she plays
 She is very well liked in many ways;
 She is also a member of Home Ec.
 class,
 A very cheerful and helpful lass.

Rose Gallo.....Movie Star Book
 Rose is a member of our speech
 class
 And is a bright and cheerful lass,
 An actress she has also become
 And claims its really very good fun.

Alphonse Misuraca.....Name Plate
 Fofu is his favorite name
 For it has brought him fame.
 To give help, he is always willing and able
 And to do anything at all, he is very capable.

Carmelo Brutto.....Whisk Broom
 Carmelo is always spic and span
 With the girls he's a popular fan,
 This little whisk broom use every
 day
 For it will help to keep you that way.

Fannie Korona.....Hair Ribbon
 To keep your hair in place
 And make it look so neat;
 This beautiful red ribbon
 Will surely accomplish the feat.

Donald MacGovern.....Mimeograph
 Donald is an active boy
 And is always full of joy,
 In running the mimeograph he does
 excel;
 In sports, too, he does very well.

Geno Santandrea.....Rubber Apron
 This apron you may use,
 On any occasion you choose,
 But its best fitted for chemistry
 work,
 In which you have never been found to shirk.

Adella Berozsky.....Aspirin
 You seem to have a headache,
 Whenever you want a pass
 So use this box of aspirin,
 And the headache will not last.

Harold Reed.....Writing Paper
 So Harold won't be lonesome
 We want to help him out,
 So if you use this paper
 You won't have cause to pout.

- Stella Swist.....Bottle of Polish
 To keep your knowledge nice and bright
 Polish it with all your might,
 Regardless of wherever you are
 We hope you'll be a shining star.
- Mary Polek.....Rattle
 Mary is one of those silent girls
 Who seldom makes a sound
 So shake this rattle with all your might,
 So we can tell when you're around.
- William Comstock.....New Car
 We can hear your car from a long way off,
 And the noise it makes is not very soft,
 So take this new one, don't be a chump
 And throw the old one away in the dump.
- Stella Petroski.....Bus
 Stella lives way out on the farm,
 And hasn't a chance to display her charm,
 This little bus will help her get
 To all the activities in town, I bet.
- Sophie Agrapides.....Skates
 Sophie comes to school each day
 Always happy and always gay,
 In her work she is quite keen
 And at Riverside skating is often seen.
- Rose Reveruzzi.....Smiles
 With your smile so bright and gay
 You're making friends day by day,
 If you have a smile to spare,
 Give it to one who has a care.
- Frank Russotto.....Buck Shot
 Bang! And down goes the pheasant
 Then Frankie is cheerful and pleasant,
 More with these shots will go down,
 Without making the slightest sound.
- Mary Melfa.....Make-up Kit
 Your hair and skin and clothes and nails
 All go to sing your praises,
 This little four-purpose make-up kit
 Will aid you in all phases.
- Raymond Malley.....Whitewash Brush
 Raymond, here's a whitewash brush,
 To cover over that rosy blush;
 You're always witty and full of fun
 Whatever you do is really well-done.
- Nina Buscemi.....Cash Register
 A pleasing voice, a winning smile,
 She's a true friend all the while;
 Her customers never do get nervous
 For Nina's there to give them service.
- Rita Crabtree.....Bus
 Rita lives away up North
 And always has to rush;
 To help her to get back and forth
 We're giving her this bus.
- Dorothy Kearns.....Date Book
 Dot has many boyfriends
 And so this book of dates,
 Will help her to keep track of them
 So she can keep them straight.
- David Beckman.....Fan
 You always seem to be blushing
 Your face gets so very red,
 This little fan you'll be using
 To chase the heat from your head.
- Worth Bostick.....Anchor and Chain
 Worth likes horseback riding,
 He also drives a car,
 Here's an anchor and chain,
 So he will never stray far.
- Warren Bomely.....Dream Book
 During school time you like to dream
 About your future outlook,
 If you by chance hit on a scheme,
 Say "thank you" for this book.

CLASS WILL

(By Worth Bostick)

Teachers, Friends and Fellow Mourners:

We are gathered here in the presence of witnesses to make known the last will and testament of the lately deceased Class of 1941. It is my duty as counsel for the said deceased body to divide among you all the remaining properties of the Class according to the dictates of this will.

We, the Class of 1941, do at this time, being of solemn mind and body, hereby declare and publish this to be our last will and testament, declaring null and void any wills or statements made by us at any previous time.

ITEM: It is our desire that our Last Services be under the direction of our principal and that at such exercises we be given all the honor and glory which is duly ours, and that for one minute preceding such services the building be absolutely silent in our memory.

ITEM: To Mr. Lee and his faculty, our friends, and advisors, we give and bequeath our sincere thanks for the knowledge and guidance that they gave us during our life at Enfield High.

ITEM: To the Juniors, we give the key to Room 26 and the guidance and love which was given us by Mrs. Eddy. With this we give you the honor of becoming Seniors, which honor is subject to your living up to the high standards set up by the Class of 1941.

ITEM: We give and bequest to the Sophomore Class all our unserved detention slips so that they might have the honor of sitting in Room 26 before they turn gray haired.

ITEM: We leave to the children of the Freshman Class a megaphone so that they might hear the seven o'clock horn of the Thompsonville Fire Department in time to wake up before the eight o'clock bell.

ITEM: To Frosty Ferguson, our esteemed janitor, we leave a set of 6 chromium plated hammers to repay him for those which we borrowed.

ITEM: The following personal bequests we leave in good will and trust that they be taken by the heirs in the spirit in which they are given.

First: Alphonse Misuraca, Senior Super-Salesman, leaves his selling ability to Craig Collins.

Second: To Flo Moschetti, Ann Arabek leaves her ability for finding a male skating partner at Riverside.

Third: Geno Santandrea leaves his difficulty in getting to Hazardville to see Geneva Starr to any underclassman who hasn't the presence of mind to go out with home-town girls.

Fourth: Norma "Small Fry" Allen leaves her ability as an endman to Eleanor Parvelac, that "mammy" of the Junior Class.

Fifth: Blair White, that man among women and also our class president, leaves his curly hair and way with the women to William Mayo.

Sixth: To Ellen Johnson, Barbara Magill leaves her high scholastic record.

Seventh: Lucyan Augustyniak is to receive the artistic ability of Margaret King and Frederick Haight.

Eighth: An automatic chair putter-upper is given by the class to Bill McLaren to aid him in putting up the chairs after the underclassmen finish their daily game "hide and seek."

Ninth: Those members of the Class who went on the Washington Trip leave the ability of William Gallant to lead the party around Grand Central Terminal to any insignificant underclassman, who has never been outside the borders of Enfield.

Tenth: We leave the great athletic ability of Kenneth "Lefty" King to Theodore Conley, that husky Sophomore lad.

Eleventh: Phyllis Crombie leaves her popularity and good dancing to Theresa Dubois.

Twelfth: Commissioner Joseph Vesce leaves to Walter Blake all his cigarette butts and an empty match book.

Thirteenth: The Class leaves Pauline Lamont's cuteness to Ann Blake.

Fourteenth: The everlasting questions and arguments of Warren Bomely are left to Martin O'Brien, that sage of the Junior Class.

Fifteenth: Therese Starr of the Freshman Class is to be the sole heir of the talent of playing good music now owned by Barbara Magill.

Sixteenth: The forensic ability of Bernard Bordua to propound dogmatic principles we bequeath to Rhodina Sisitzky.

Seventeenth: Andy Siana, our N. Y. A. worker, leaves to his able assistant Ernest Mankus his cloth and pail to wash the blackboards.

Eighteenth: Jane Novak leaves her good looks and neat appearance to Kay Ferguson, the Junior songstress.

Nineteenth: Raymond Malley gives his dancing ability to the Sophomore jitterbug, Henry Buika.

Twentieth: Robert Triggs leaves his bad driving and narrow escapes to Carol Beeman, the King Street cow-girl.

Twenty-first: To Betty McLaren, the Junior oomph girl, Constance Angelica leaves her red face and dimples.

Twenty-second: To Mary Michko, Bobby Blaney leaves her ability to chew gum and flash those two big dimples.

Twenty-third: All remaining property, which has not been disposed of by this our last will and testament, we give and bequeath to our principal, Mr. Lee, for his disposal.

We hereby appoint said principal, Mr. Lee, of the Town of

ADVICE TO UNDERGRADUATES

(By Donald MacGovern)

Ladies, Gentlemen and undistinguished members of the under classes:

The responsibility of advising you little "imps" has been placed on my shoulders by the very worthy Class of 1941, and although no one can do much to help you in your knighted state, I will make an attempt. It can not be sufficiently impressed upon you that you should heed this valuable advice, because I think you were "behind the door, when the brains were being passed out."

LAZY JUNIORS: We note that in April very few of you were in that select group called honor students, in your (phraseology) common language "on the Honor Roll", (or hadn't some of you heard of that?) We suggest that you do not "give-up" homework for most of the year, but "give-up" candy during Lent, instead.

However, don't let us discourage you. Though you have tried very hard to surpass our Proms both in profit and decorations, you of course realize that you can not hope to equal the standards set by your predecessors, the Seniors.

How can you be worthy of occupying the very honorable seats in Room 26 unless you bestir yourselves mightily to make up for this poor record!

SILLY SOPHOMORES: The old saying "Sophomores think they know, but do not know" applies very well to the Class of '43. In the past you have highly amused the Seniors by your futile efforts to steal or try to steal, the beauteous girls of our class. Beside the Clark Gables and Robert Taylors of the Senior Class, what chance did you have? When we consider the "Flood of Knowledge" which emanates from the Seniors, and the fact that we are about to leave you in the lurch, you Sophomores may as well "roll down your pantaloons" and make the best of it!

Enfield, County of Hartford, State of Connecticut, executor of this our last will and testament.

In witness thereof, we, the Class of 1941, set our hand and seal this eighteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-one.

(Signed) CLASS OF 1941

A. WORTH BOSTICK, Attorney

Witnesses:

JOHN FERGUSON
WILLIAM McLAREN
LEO SLAMON

FLAMBOYANT FRESHMEN: Of course you can not be expected to know the meaning of this five dollar word, but you will illustrate the meaning of the adjective by your careless, crude, and giddy ways. You love to "put an act upon the stage," but, little ones, why not "put on a good act?" Why be actors on the stage "full of sound and fury, signifying nothing" as Shakespeare says? Boldly you cut classes or skip school, only to find yourselves on the outside looking in. This "trial and error" method seems to be the only one some of you understand. You believe attending school is like being vaccinated, if you are inoculated with education it "may take" without any help from you. You must promptly reform and pattern studiously after the noble Class of 1941. There is achievement for you to gaze upon. There is genius perfected by long hours of "burning the mid-night oil" and great natural ability, far above the average. We know you could scarcely attain such heights as ours but you "could try!"

UNSOPHISTICATED UNDERCLASSMEN: You will see in the very near future that using Room 26 for a waste paper basket and garbage can is not so pleasant as it now seems. We charge nothing for this warning, for you'll have to take the consequences!

To get on the serious side of things, we appreciate greatly the pleasure and cooperation we have had from the classes of '42, '43, and '44, in the various social and scholastic programs during the year.

RESPONSE FOR THE UNDERGRADUATES

(By James LaRussa)

Good Evening Ladies and Gentlemen—and you egotistical Seniors. It has been the usual custom of the Junior Class President to make this response for the Undergraduates. I do so with the greatest of pleasure.

Before I start this response I want you to know that the dumb look you see on the faces of this Senior Class is because they are still trying to figure out and translate what their representative has just said.

My friend said that we were "Behind the door, when the brains were passed out." Maybe we were, but what were you Seniors doing behind us.

I admit that many of us Juniors were not on the Honor Roll, but I would be safe in saying that you Seniors have nothing to brag about on this matter.

While we are on the subject of brilliance, I want to ask you who won the Vox Pop Contest? You might think it would be a senior because of the number of years of schooling, but who did? Joseph Basile, a member of the Honorable Junior Class.

You say that the Sophomores tried to steal the beautiful girls of your class and didn't succeed against the competition of your Clark Gables and Robert Taylors. Well, all I can say is that your Clark Gables and Robert Taylors are awful homely, and should be sued for misrepresentation.

Freshmen, go ahead and roll down your pantaloons and make the best of it, because that's what the Seniors had to do when they were freshmen.

About the Freshmen acting, my friend said that it was terrible. He couldn't find anything against them, so he picked on their acting which is very good.

He talks about the Freshmen skipping school. Well I believe the average school week for a Senior is four days.

While you accuse the Underclassmen of using the waste paper basket in Room 26 as a garbage can, did you ever stop to think that we were only imitating our Elders?

When I first saw you come in I thought I was in the wrong place; because I saw a shepherd herding in sheep, then again I heard so much noise I thought it was doors knocking, but I found out that it was the Seniors legs shaking.

Well, I don't want to say anything more about you Seniors because you're dressed up in pretty clothes and expect nice things to be said about you. . . .

But, I do want to thank you in behalf of the Underclassmen for the cooperation you have given us in the past and we will try to follow the good examples made by you and wish you the best of luck, in the world.

CLASS SONG

(Words by Margaret Renals—Music by Curtis Most)

The musical score is written for a four-part choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor 1, Tenor 2) and a piano accompaniment. It consists of six systems of staves. The first five systems represent the main body of the song, and the sixth system is the chorus. The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 3/4. The piano accompaniment is written in the bass clef, and the vocal parts are in the treble clef. The music is in a simple, homophonic style, with chords and single notes. The chorus is marked with the word 'Chorus' above the staff.

Earnestly we face the future, ready for life's work,
Prepared to do our duty, resolved no task to shirk.
Honesty is what we seek, Loyalty our aim,
Sincerity to classmates, Respect for ev'ry name.

Chorus:

Gratefully we honor thee, Our own dear Enfield High.
Four happy years have passed away and now we must say goodbye.

As we journey on life's road, friends we'll find anew,
But one thing we will hold fast is our deep faith in you.
Future years will come and go, we will face the test!
Our Enfield standard we'll prove by giving our best!

FURNITURE THAT WILL MAKE THE HOME

more truly efficient—at prices that will surprise you by their reasonableness. Just come in and see them. You—American mothers and fathers—know how much our lives are influenced by surroundings and associations. Let's make your home what you would like it to be. See that your furnishings and household time savers are more than useful. See that they are beautiful, too.

Take life easy

THERE'S a hard way and an easy way to do almost everything.

Consider the item of making payments, for instance. You can do it the hard way by paying with cash — walking from place to place, risking the dangers of loss and theft, wasting time and effort.

Or you can do it the easy way by paying with checks. It will take but a few minutes to start an account here.
